IN MEMORIAM

"Honored by three presidents of our country, he holds the nation's supreme award for the advancement of the peaceful application of that awesome power in whose unleashing he was so instrumental. Combined with the austerity of mind of one of the foremost theoretical physicists of his generation is great sensitivity of spirit and a personal magnetism that has attracted to him many of the outstanding intelligences of the world. Physicist and sailor, philosopher and horseman, linguist and cook, lover of fine wine and better poetry, he has added distinction to an already great Institute and strengthened the Princeton community of learning."

In the above words 62-year old Robert Oppenheimer, third Director of the Institute for Advanced Study, was proudly and affectionately cited last June by Princeton University in presenting the honorary degree of Doctor of Science. The appearance of the frail scientist on the Nassau Hall commencement platform, thunderously applauded by some 5,500 persons, stirred memories of the community's reactions in 1963 when he was awarded the $50,000 Enrico Fermi Award, given by the U. S. Atomic Energy Commission, the same body that in 1954 had labeled Oppenheimer a security risk on the basis of "fundamental defects of character." The consensus in June, as it had been in 1963, was one of unabashed enthusiasm.

The most stirring recollection of the chain-reaction touched off in 1963 by the Fermi Award originated here in Oppenheimer's study in Fuld Hall as a kind of preamble to a wide-ranging press conference. In a brief prepared text, Oppenheimer, a wonderfully articulate human being, said in part: "Most of us look to the good opinion of our colleagues and to the good will and confidence of our government. I am no exception." With this eloquent passage, without any further discussion of his own past and without mention of his heart-aches, he broke nine years of silence and stirred sad thoughts of the stigma of the un-American phenomenon known as "McCarthyism."

Elected to the New York Mineralogical Society at age 11 and a meteoric student at Harvard, where he gave almost as much time to languages, art and philosophy as he did to science, the native New Yorker and his controversial career came to symbolize the dawn of the age in which we live. In 1942 he was a little-known physicist on the faculties of the University of California and the California Institute of Technology. Three years later, when he stepped down as the guiding genius behind Manhattan Project, he was extolled as the one individual who could have taken in stride "three years of the most intense mental strain any man ever had to undergo."

The accounts of Oppenheimer's successes in directing the World War II atomic bomb laboratory at Los Alamos are numbered among the thrilling chapters in 20th century American history. Equipment had to be shuttled to the desolate desert installation from all parts of the nation, including in the early stages three train carloads of apparatus from Princeton, generators from Wisconsin and a cyclotron from Harvard. Long before the A-Bomb was exploded over Japan, Oppenheimer had molded into a single team an extraordinary galaxy of scientists as well as 6,000 professional and military workers. Throughout the nerve-searing period, the official reports emphasize: "The main decisions were Oppenheimer's and all proved to be correct."

His explorations of the mysteries of matter and his understanding of the "special faith and dedication" of the profession of learning have earned a secure place in history. It was the credo of this superb teacher and remarkable administrator that "we can keep on learning indefinitely."

This Is PRINCETON

ME, TOO

In Engineering Building. Everybody, as the saying goes, wants to get into the act. The brick building on the corner of Witherspoon and Green, sometimes known as the Engineering Building because the Borough engineering department is there, sometimes as the Community Building because that's what it was built for, will be emptied out when the new Borough Hall is finished later this year.

Who would like to move in? Everybody. Borough Council and Mayor Henry S. Patterson hope to reach a decision in mid-March on what to do with the building, and between now and then, they're sure to receive a lot of helpful advice, most of it swinging around the theme: "Why not me?"

Seven organizations have filed written requests for all or part of the building.

Princeton Youth Center, Inc., would like the whole building for a teen center, renting out some of its space to other organizations.

The United Fund would like to buy the building, but presents alternative proposals.

Princeton Regional Schools would like all "or a portion of" the building for administrative offices only.

The Princeton Junior Museum would like certain specified parts of the building, and is quite willing to share its space with other groups.

The Princeton Art Association wants to rent space, and hopes the whole building can be used for several mutually compatible community groups.

The Council of Community Services, which also has offices in the building, would simply like to keep them.

And Princeton Community Players would like to use the Miss Fine's gym.

Lots of Space. Erected in 1938-39 specifically for the community use of the people of Princeton, the Engineering Building has untold possibilities. It was built with Public Works Administration funds, matched with some money from the Borough, and so far as the eye can tell, it was well-built.

The late Kenneth Kassler was architect for the structure and he designed it to be made of brick and cement. It is shabby at the moment and every part of its interior cries for scrub brush and paint brush, but it seems to be sturdy.

dy indeed.

On the ground level alone, there are 2,509 square feet of space divided into hallways and assorted rooms now used as offices by the Borough engineer and his staff. The north side of the ground level, facing Green Street, is used by the United Fund.

One of the first floor rooms, about the size of a modest living-room, has a large brick fireplace and wide west windows. Except for a large conference room and one small office, this ground floor is air-conditioned. The United Fund also bought air-conditioning units for its part of the first floor.

Downstairs. There are two main entrances: one on Witherspoon Street, and one on Green Street. The two parts of the ground level can either be thrown together — only a door separates them — or closed off and used separately as they are now.

Downstairs is a basement comprising about 800 square feet. It can be reached from a third outside door which gives directly to a small parking area on the west. Anyone entering by this door can go straight down to the basement without going through the first floor at all.

At present, the basement is used for Civil Defense offices.

Who Moves In? Princeton's Junior Museum has some interesting features. A dumb-waiter shaft leads from the basement kitchen up to the kindergarten on the second floor. A recent lavatory and kitchenette installation has been made on the main floor, and although it is skimpy, at least it provides the basic plumbing for additional facilities. There is a flat roof which the Junior Museum would like to use for a weather station and classes in meteorology.

The one serious drawback is lack of parking space. At night, cars can park south of the library or in P.S. 1, space, but during the daytime and on weekdays, there isn't much room for anything except two walking legs.

Last year, maintenance costs for the building came to $1,321.31. The figure breaks down to $785 for fuel oil, $316.62 for electricity and $100.05 for water.

The Museum may purchase with some gift money, an electric typewriter and mimeographing equipment, and these could be housed in the Community Building and their use shared with the community.

The Princeton Art Association has similar ideas. The PAA hopes to start a kind of workshop — not classes — which would simply make all kinds of materials available to people who wanted to use them: electrical equipment, motors; welding, casting and soldering tools; cement, wood or plastic.

Within a building like the Community Building, PAA offers, say, many compatible groups could share such facilities and equipment.

Youth in the Vanguard. At the moment, the idea seems to have the lead. "Council is probably receptive to the idea of putting a teen lounge in the building," Mayor Patterson said this week.

He added that the Borough would want to help the Youth Center work out co-operative arrangements with other groups, and would certainly stipulate what kinds of organizations could rent space.

The Junior Museum could be compatible with many age groups, Mayor Patterson observed. The Museum has asked Creative Playthings to design de-mountable exhibit and store.

TOPICS Of The Town

BAILEY, PIKE CHOSEN
In Election Contest. A school election whose final results could have swung on the absentee ballot count ended Tuesday night with incumbent Herbert Bailey and newcomer Winthrop S. Pike as victors in the Township's five-man race for the pair of two-year Township seats on the Princeton Regional School Board.

From the first, Mr. Bailey was the clear winner of one seat with 573 votes, not counting absentees. Close together for the second seat were Mr. Pike with 268 and Carl L. Sonnenchein with 257 — a spread of only 21 votes.

When the Township's 40 absentee ballots were finally tallied, in from the convalesciers in Trenton more than an hour after the polls closed, Mr. Pike picked up 23 more votes, Mr. Sonnenchein only nine. The final tally between the two: Mr. Pike, 321; Mr. Sonnenchein, 278. Mr. Bailey received 36 absentees for a final count of 609.

The other candidates in the five-man contest polled these totals: Orlando Petrocelli, 231 (including two absentee votes); Howard Fox, 200 votes (including five absentees).

The two unopposed Township candidates, Mrs. Suzanne Fremont and Charles Jaffin, received 554 and 552 votes respectively. Mrs. Fremont, currently vice-president of the board, was the high-scoring winner all along the line in both municipalities.

Write-In? No. The Borough's slate ran unopposed. High scorer was Mrs. Bonnie Wagner with 456, followed by Thomas Moore, 417; E. Frederick Lachever, 415; Robert A. Lively, 393 and Harvey Rothberg, 394.

A rumored write-in campaign fizzled out, if indeed it ever had been burning. Mrs. Orrin Jack Turner and Graham Rohrer each received two write-ins, including one absentee each. John Buckland, a former member of the Borough Board, also received two votes. One each were recorded for Stuart Carothers, Mrs. Kathleen Edwards, Thomas Roberts and last-name-only votes for Marguerite Miller and Osborne. Absentee Borough voters cast 41 ballots.

In the budget column, Borough voters passed both current expense and capital outlay budgets by more than three to one. The township's ratio of "yes" to "no" was slightly more than two to one. The Borough figures: Current expense: "yes" 376, "no" 117. Capital outlay: "yes" 366, "no" 118. The Township figures: Current expense: "yes" 632, "no" 251. Capital outlay: "yes" 627, "no" 237. In the district as a whole, the current expense budget was voted in by 115 to 368 and the capital outlay by 993 to 355.

SCHOOL BOARD TO MEET
First Regular Session. The assignment of Princeton's school children will be the chief item of discussion when the new Princeton Regional School Board meets next Tuesday.

The meeting will be held in the auditorium of the John Witherspoon School on Walnut Lane at 8 p.m.

The proposed "Middle School" would combine Community Park and Valley Road schools into a single unit for all sixth, seventh and eighth graders in Borough and Township.

The chief opposition to the re-organization plan for youngsters in the elementary grades, has come from parents whose children attend Johnson Park, smallest school in the district.

Johnson Park parents have said they are disturbed by the transfer of 53 Johnson Park youngsters to John Witherspoon; however, the Board has many letters from parents who are equally disturbed by the overcrowding at Johnson Park. The Board also has letters from parents who would like to see re-assignment of pupils postponed indefinitely.

A petition bearing 143 signatures and asking for a "public hearing" on attendance zones was received by the Board in January and will be honored Tuesday night. According to Dr. Harvey Bergh, present Board president, 55 of the signatures are from the Walnut-Maple section of the Township, 56 are from the Hamilton-Maple section of the Borough and 32 are from Rocky Hill.

CHILDREN IN DANGER

Traffic Count Thinks So. A tally of school and hospital traffic in the area bounded by Franklin Avenue, Valley Road, Witherspoon Street and Walnut Lane has been presented in Borough and Township officials and Safety Committees, and endorsed by the Parent-Teachers Organization Council of the Princeton Regional Schools.

The 16-page study was made by a seven-member "School Traffic Count Citizens Committee" consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Sergio Bonato, 72 Henry Avenue, Mr. and Mrs. James Driver, 142 Jefferson Road, Mrs. Vincent J. Esposito, 9 Harris Road, Mrs. William H. Kueh 115 Jefferson Road and Mrs. William D. Stokes, 120 Jefferson Road.

Within the "school-hospital" complex included in the geographic boundaries of the study, the committee found that such streets as Harris Road and Henry Avenue are clogged and parking "city-lod" traffic although they are in a residential area.

The committee asks strict enforcement of "no parking on this side" and "two-hour limit" parking signs in the area, especially during school hours. In addition, the committee recommends additional crossing guards, crosswalk and driveway markings and "stop," "school crossing," "no parking" or "school zone" signs at strategic points.

The detailed study—its even notes that three cars went into the Lambert House hospital parking lot by the "Out" driveway—records an average of 36.6 cars on Witherspoon south of Valley Road, in a survey week. On Henry between Witherspoon and Carlsbad, the count tallied 3,955.

Here's Hoping!

Rain or snow?
Just take your pick:
Neither one is Going to stick.

That's the long-range viewpoint, anyway. The snow forecast for Thursday may change the appearance of the countryside for a while, and temperatures below normal should keep it with us for a few days.

Wednesday, however, is March 1. Even if the month comes in like a lion, there's no denying that about three weeks later, it will produce the first day of spring.

JUST A TOUCH OF LIGHT: Ariel, in process of transformation. Susan Babel, who plays Shakespeare's spirit in McCarter's "The Tempest," applies the shimmering makeup that turns her into a spirit from another world.

News Of The THEATRES

IT'S REHEARSAL TIME And Audience Is There. About a dozen people moved quietly out of the sunshine into the dark of McCarter Theatre Saturday afternoon to watch a technical rehearsal of Shakespeare's "The Tempest."

"They are members of the McCarter Guild and as such, were invited to come and go and watch during the five-hour span of the rehearsal. Another invitation to watch another play in rehearsal will come later in the spring season."

"The Tempest" is a highly technical play to steer through; tech, rehearsal. Not only actors' cues and lighting cues must be synchronized, but complex storm effects, songs and music must all be dovetailed into a sonorous whole.

However vexing all this may be to the director, Anthony Stine, it is informative and absorbing for anyone lucky enough to be in the dark of the auditorium.

Mr. Stine and his cast spent more than two hours on the initial storm scene alone. Then they moved to the magic island and to Prospero and his daughter, Miranda, and the half-witch, Caliban.

The pace was relaxed and easy, without the snap-crackle-pop commonly the rehearsal stereotype. Actors moved about in jeans and work shirts, sometimes amusingly incongruous as a sword flashed against a dunsgeared hip.

George Heern, as Caliban, wearing his grotesque mask so that he can become accustomed to the construction, worked over the details of his entrance. Mr. Stine, matching his opening speech to the trombone theme written for Caliban by composer Frank Lewin, and pacing his entrance slowly, for heightened dramatic effect, Mr. Lewin himself jumped to the stage and moved behind the scene to coach a few spirites in one of his "Tempest" songs.

Many who watched the rehearsal went out for an hour or two and then returned. Most of the actors were probably unaware that they were there. One Guild member came all the way from Philadelphia to watch and hear.

Guild membership, still open, may be obtained by writing to McCarter Theatre, Princeton, for detailed information.

WE ARE THE PLAYERS For Shakespeare. The Cast has been announced for Shakespeare's "The Tempest," third in McCarter's spring series of repertory plays. It will open this Friday at 8:30. Susan Babel will portray Ariel, the blithe sprite, and her husband, George Heern, will be Caliban, the half-witch monster who shares the island with Ariel Prospero and Miranda.

Last fall, Miss Babel played Cassandra in "Agamemnon" and the vaudivelle performer, May Daniels in "Once In A Lifetime." This season, she is the new Ophelia in "Hamlet."

Mr. Heern, who remains as Hamlet, also plays Pozzo in "Waiting for Godot." Prospero ruler of the island, will be played by Peter Bailey Britton. The young lovers, Miranda and Ferdinand, will be played by another McCarter husband and wife team, Lauren Jones and Michael Schultz. Miss Jones plays the courtisan's part in "The Braggart Warrior" and Mr. Schultz is the director of "Godot."

Also in the cast are John Genke and Bryan Hull as Sebastian and Antonio; Tamara Daniel and Eve Johnson as the goddesses Iris and Juno; Jake Drugg as Trinculo; Gordon Peering as Alonso; Michael McKee as Stephano and Gordon Phillips as Gonzalo.

 Anthony Quinn is the director. Clyde Blaisley and Marshall Williams have designed the lighting and Charles D. Tomlinson has designed costumes and settings. Frank Levin has composed the incidental music.

WELCOME, ELLA
 Jazz singer to appear, Ella Fitzgerald will come to Princeton for the first time on Wednesday, Feb. 29, to sing before a audience in McCarter Theatre.
 The jazz singer, almost a legend by now, has won more awards from major sources than any other popular vocalist. Her records are on sale now at McCarter for her special appearance.

SEGOVIA: SRO
 Or, On Stage. Seats on stage are all that remain for the fourth annual appearance in McCarter Theatre of Andres Segovia, classical master of the classic guitar.
 Senior Segovia will appear on Monday, March 27, at 8:30. Stage seats may be purchased at the box-office now.

SWEET KATE
 "Shrew" Comely. Elegant costumes, horn and string music from Vivaldi and a youthful cast promise a full evening of merriment when Theatre Italia's "Taming of the Shrew" opens this Thursday at 8:30 in Murray Theatre.
 "Shrew" Comely's comedy will continue through this Sunday night, then will resume on Wednesday, March 14, and close on Saturday, March 4. Reservations may be made by calling 452-3627 between 7:30 and 10 a.m.

Felix Platzen is directing a cast headed by Bob Rockwell and Sheila Sheffield as Petruchio and Kate. The film, last week from a crew of German National Television cameramen who were in the states to film a documentary about German emigres.
 They stretched their theme to include scenes from American studio theatre, and so part of Intime's "Taming of the Shrew" will be on view in June over German National Television.

ADULTS ONLY
 For Experimental Films. Studios had their day at the Mirch and Movement Festival last month. Now it's Mommy's and Daddy's turn, as McCarter Theatre offers its program of Experimental, Avant-Garde and Independent Cinema next Monday at 8. "Adults only."
 The ten programmed works are various in style and content. Bruce Connor's "A Movie" is a college comedy pasted together from cowboy movie, movie titles, calendar art, jungle movies and neoclassical.

"Dance Chronicle," from Ed Emshwiller, a combination of dance and abstract art to provide "a hymnic visual and psychological experience."
 "Private Life of a Cat" is a silent, pointing up humane-feline analogies in a film about love, birth and growth in a family.

In "Science Fiction," Stan Sheehy presents a universal political satire on conformism and infatuation with rockets. Ernest Pintoff's cartoon, "The Critic," will also show, and McCarter promises one surprise film.

IT'S NEW To Us

Watercolor . . .

...Viking Furniture is serving as a gallery these days for the showing of watercolors by Mrs. Elaine P. Heinemann.

LET IT RAIN
On My Silk. Doesn't a silk raincoat sound like the most luxurious thing in the world? Mayme Mead thinks so, too, and has imported Lawrence of London's silk coats to pamper you the next time it rains. These are all-purpose coats, actually, and if you know Lawrence, you know that his garments make handsome evening or after-dive coats in case you don't want to get them soaked.

Our undoubted favorite is Mayme Mead's Kelly silk, with its Joseph's-coat silk lining of wide royal and Kelly stripes separated by lines of white. An umbrella is the same stripe.

This coat also comes in royal blue, cherry, turquoise, gold, shocking pink, shell pink, coffee and black—among others. Like the raincoat at the end of the day.

Another Lawrence all-purpose coat is a great tent of black and white plaid, wide and huge, with bars of red criss-crossing at wide intervals. It's double-breasted, collarless and thoroughly dramatic.

A cherry silk has rhinestone buttons holding out the rain and an all-wool gabardine in creamy white has gold single-breasted buttons to perform the same task.

When the rain stops, you can wear your new Davidson spring suit. Hot pink, hot fuchsia, hot white in a Davidow! That's right. They combine happily in a sort of plaid woven with happy and open abandon into the most casual of woolen weaves. The jacket has a banded neckline, the sleeves have banded cuffs, and there are four antiqued gold buttons to match all the pink.

News Of The Theatres

"...narrated from Paris" in a typical small town. His experiences affect all around him, young and old alike. There are generous amounts of comedy, adventure, romance and drama, with the Walt Disney mark apparent throughout. Fred MacMurray is a swashbuckler in a lacy little band making one night stands during the 1920's. He gets fed up and settles down in the next small town, finds a job in the general store and falls in love with the girl across the street.

In order to win his clevver-minded girl, he volunteers to start a Boy Scout troop. He agrees with the assignment, having adopted the theory that there's no such thing as a bad boy. The adventures are typical Disney such as the incident where the Scouts tangle with groups of soldiers on War maneuvers.

The appearances of Vera Miles and old-time Charlie Ruggler, Ken Murray and Julian Gish in substantial parts highlight the film. And it's a natural for color.

A family film, with a happy ending.

PLAYHOUSE AND PRINCE
A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum (now playing) is a mixture of farce and burlesque set in ancient times, complete with pratfalls by the comics and bumps and grinds by the girls.

FOLLOW ME BOYS: Youthful high jinks among the Boy Scouts in the family film now at the Garden Theatre.

Zero Mostel repeats his Broadway role of the conniving slave Pseudolus, and Jack Clifford is again the less-than-praising slave Hysterium.

Two other top clowns join them in the film version: Phil Silvers as the head of the house of courtiers, and the late, Buster Keaton in his last role as the father who has spent his life searching for his two children captured by pirates years before.

The book of the musical is a mad mélange of plots and counter plots, sex and force, ribald dialogue, switched identities, amorous dances, men disguised as women, orgies and a climatic chariot chase in which Mostel ends up on the equivalent of water skis.

The clowns are in great form, and the girls are knock-outs.

Green Sheet rating: fine for adults and mature youth.

BOOKING CHANGED

At New Strand, Two pictures starring Greek actress Melina Mercouri will play The New Strand in Lambertville March 1 through 6, substituting for "Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf?" The latter film has been withdrawn by the distributor, a not uncommon occurrence when Academy Awards are coming up.

The Mercouri films, both directed by her husband Jules Dassin, are "If We Must Die" and, at 10:30 p.m., "Summer."

"Summer" is Dassin's most recent film and deals with the complicated relations among an aging husband and wife and their mutual friend, a young and beautiful woman played by Romy Schneider.

"If We Must Die" is a modern version of the Christ story set in Greece at the time of the Turkish occupation, with an inarticulate but impassioned young Greek shepherd as the Christ symbol. Through a "miracle," he is finally able to express himself. His fiery speeches and Christlike acts of mercy bring about his downfall.

BALLET GROUP TO DANCE

At War Memorial Building. The Princeton Regional Ballet, under the direction of Audrey Ealey, will return to the War Memorial Building in Trenton April 1 for a special encore performance. Co-featured with the ballet will be the Princeton Chamber Orchestra under the direction of Nicholas Harnon.

In addition, the 50 young dancers will be augmented by some of the most prominent figures in today's dance world. A ballet has been created by Myra Kinch, choreographer of the Jacob's Pillow Dance Festival, especially for the occasion.

Guests artists include Selma Simmonsen and James Bolt, leading directors of the Manhattan Festival Ballet. Nathaniel Burt, Princeton author, lecturer and composer, has created a musical setting of "Chanson Innocents" a poem by e. e. cummings celebrating young emotions.

POOLS TO OPEN MAY 27
Recreation Listed: The Community Park pools will open for the first time May 27. Full-time summer operation will begin June 17. Specifically, the pools will be open from 12 noon to 6 p.m. May 27-28-29-30. On the weekends of June 2-4 and 10-11, they will be open from noon to 8 p.m. Starting June 17, through September, they will be open six days a week from 9 a.m. to 8 p.m.

The pools will be closed every Monday with the exception of May 29, July 3 and September 4.
Edward Beacham, assistant recreation director, will oversee the operation of the pools. The reason for the sporadic start, he said was threefold: the air is still cool in the morning in May; the schools will be in session until mid-June, and the Recreation Department wanted to start slowly to get a feel for the operation of the pools.

Free Instruction Morning from 9 to 11, Tuesday through Friday only, the pools will be open for free instructional swimming. In addition, there will be free swimming Tuesday through Sunday mornings from 9 to 11 for residents of the Township and Borough. Who's eligible and how much? Season tickets are limited to bona-fide residents of Princeton Borough and Township, to Township and Borough municipal employees, their families and to Princeton Regional Board of Education employees and their families. However, a limited number of non-resident season tickets will be available on a first come, first served basis.

Season tickets cost are: family, $40; husband and wife, $25; individual, $15. The figures for non-residents are: $60, $37.50 and $22.50, included in the family plan are all children who have not reached their 21st birthday. Special exceptions may be authorized by the Recreation Department. Application blanks for season tickets will appear soon in TOWN TOPICS.

Daily Admission. Daily admission fees for residents 16 or over will be $1 on weekdays and $1.50 weekends and holidays. For those under 16, the fees will be 50 cents and 75 cents. For guests the charge for adults will be $1.50 weekdays, $2 weekends. Guests under 16 will pay $1 and $1.25. Guests must be accompanied at all times by a member.
Except during instructional swim periods, all children under 16 must be accompanied by an adult. After 6 p.m., all children under 14 must be accompanied by an adult.

To protect the health and safety of all using the pools, the Recreation Department has compiled a list of rules and regulations covering such areas as hygiene, conduct, and prohibitions. Dangerous or improper sets will end in expulsion and possible suspension.

Operating costs for the pool complex have been estimated at $43,917 of which $27,856 for salaries and wages. The entire recreation budget for 1967 is $118,191.

Tennis Courts, Too. For those who prefer the swing of a tennis racket to the spring of a diving board, the Recreation Department can offer the use of six new hard surface courts and nine fast-dry courts. All are adjacent to the pools.

The hard surface courts will be open daily from 9 until dark, whenever weather permits at no charge to residents of the Township or the Borough. The fast-dry courts will be available for play from April 1 through October to all who have purchased season tickets or paid the daily admission fee.

Residence and occupational eligibility requirements for a season tennis ticket are the same as those for swimming. Season ticket fees are: family, $10; husband and wife, $7.50; and individual, $5. Non-residents must pay, $15, $11.25 and $7.50 respectively. Again, a limited number of non-resident season tickets will be available.

Daily admission fees for the fast dry courts for resident adults are 50 cents an hour for weekdays and $1 an hour for weekends and holidays. Players under 16 will pay 25 cents an hour and 50 cents on weekends. For adult guests over 16 the hourly admission will be $1 and $1.50 weekends. Under 16, 50 cents and 75 cents.

No basketball makers will be allowed on the fast-dry courts.

Programs Curtailed. At the February meeting of the Recreation Commission last week, director R. Donald Barr reported that a few of the commission's newer programs had to be curtailed for budgetary reasons.

The arts and crafts program at Valley Road School, which he said was not well attended after Christmas, has ended. A second class at the John Witherspoon School, where attendance is averaging about 50, will end in March.

There's a bit of the beast in every bug.

It doesn't take much to unleash the savage fury of a Volkswagen.

Take almost any old VW, replace the body, make a few simple adjustments, and you've got a Formula Vee racer.

How can a mild-mannered, practical, everyday Volkswagen convert so easily into something so delightfully impractical?

In the words of the Formula Vee International Manual "Volkswagen components seem to have been made expressly for use in a racing car."

The engine, air-cooled yet mostly aluminum, is light for its power output and already adapted to the racing concept of modern racing cars.

"Its rugged construction provides a power plant which seems to be practically indestructible, even at racing speeds."

"Operating costs are amazingly low. One set of tires will ordinarily last more than a season and one oil change a year is sufficient."

It seems that the same things that make the VW a sensible car for people who aren't in any particular hurry to get somewhere also make the Formula Vee a sensible car for people who are in a big hurry to get somewhere.

wrestling classes are scheduled to end now on Saturday. However, the boys' Saturday morning basketball program at Community Park will continue through spring and then change to softball.

Action on the dawn-to-dusk lighting for the pools, which Public Service had offered to install and maintain for a fee of $4,000, was postponed. The commission had some difficulty for its monthly bill but PS replied it would have to be on a year-round basis.

SHOVEL THAT SNOW!

Time May Be Shortened. Township householders who haven't even been clearing snow off their walks within the present 48-hour limit, may find themselves with only 24 hours in which not to shovel snow.

The present ordinance says that snow must be shoveled off the walks 48 hours after the snow has stopped falling. Several Township residents have petitioned the Committee to reduce this period to 24 hours so that shoveling can be done before the snow melts. The school on safe sidewalks and not in streets makes every day dangerous than usual because they are narrowed and slicked by snow.

At Committee meeting Monday night, Township Engineer Frank L. Quinby admitted that the Township itself clears snow from the walks of delinquent householders, starting near the schools and fanning out from there. Property-owners are then billed.

He also sometimes notify a property-owner of something he knows already—that he hasn't shoveled his walk. But no summons have ever been issued, Mr. Quinby said.

Where's My Shovel? Henry Frank, with sidewalks of his own at 126 Valley Road, defended the present ordinance: "Householders ought to be given a breather for a couple of days after a storm," he told the Committee. "Reducing the time to 24 hours could be rough on commuters." Most of the petitioners, noted Administrator Joseph R. Nini, live in areas where there are no sidewalks at all.

* Two Township residents—one on Jefferson Road and one on Turner Court—live on Walnut Lane from Valley Road south to the new town newspaper. School children must now walk in the street if they travel on Walnut.

* Mr. Quinby told Committee that the Traffic Safety Committee endorsed sidewalks on both sides of Walnut Lane. He added that the traffic committee has already discussed the snow-shoveling petition.

Walter M. Weber, 301 Jefferson Road, accepted with a smile his $218.65 assessment for $448 worth of sidewalk along Mr. Lucas' lot. The Township picks up the rest. "It'll give me a sidewalk to shovel," he said.

Where's My Ruler? Another assessed property owner was more curious than annoyed. James A. Figg Jr., 310 Riverside Drive east, didn't much mind his $4.94 sidewalk assessment, although he was puzzled to find it two cents higher than the original $4.52 he had been told.

He did want to know, however, why he had been assessed at all when the developer was supposed to have paid for the sidewalks. Other Riverside residents also found themselves with unexpected billed assessments.

Mr. Quinby told Committee that the developer's own engineer had apparently slipped his stakes. Measurements were off to such an extent, Mr. Quinby said, that the developer actually laid several feet of sidewalk beyond his own property.

Committeeman William L. Wilson moved that all Riverside residents be assessed $50, he waived and the developer asked to pick up the check. If he failed, the bond has already expired, the Township will.

Township engineers check only to see whether improvements have been done, and whether they measure out. Mr. Quinby said, Attorney General Griffin suggested a developer might be asked to pay the cost of inch-by-inch inspection.

Albert J. Cavers, 44 Hillside Avenue, was appointed to the Board of Improvement Assessors for a three-year term starting January 1 of this year. He replaces Philip Golden. Committee approved two contracts, totalling $12,000, with its planning consultants, Knudsen and Shepherd. The first, for $6,000 covers the sixth and final year of the "30-47" arrangement between the Township and the state.

Under this agreement, the state paid 50% of the first year's planning and the Township paid 50%. The state's share has dropped by 10% each succeeding year until now the Township pays the total amount.

Under the second $6,000 contract, the consultant is working on the zoning ordinance and the Master Plan. The zoning ordinance should be ready by early 1968. Mr. Nini said, and the Master Plan later this year. The $12,000 has already been budgeted.

CLEARING HOUSE FORMED
For Teenage Concerns, A. C. Reeves Hicks was elected chairman of the new Committee on Teenage Concerns at the fourth monthly meeting held Friday at the Stuart School.

Last October, when the headline read, "Teens On The Loose," the Committee was called together by the Rev. F. Hugh Liffman of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, which sponsors "The Basement" for teenagers and by members of the YMCA board of directors.

The Committee is composed of representatives of 18 Princeton agencies, schools, churches and organizations all involved with youth. Mr. Hicks is recreation chairman for the Council of Community Services.

Topics of discussion and areas of agreement over the past months include:

- Standardized behavior requirements
- Coordination of the major teenage events in the community

- Cooperation with police in a problem of traffic and of young people spilling over from the dances onto Nassau Street

- The use of school identification cards as a means of keeping community dances restricted to students of the Princeton schools.

- Several community-wide dances held at Princeton High School planned and executed by the combined efforts of the organizations represented on the Committee.

Two Dances Planned. R. Donald Barr, executive director of the Joint Recreation Department and chairman of the community dances, reported Friday that teenagers' dances will be held this Saturday and on Saturday, March 11. He said that a teen committee of the various organizations is involved in the planning.

The Committee also heard a report from Herb McGinnis, a 19-year student at Princeton Theological Seminary, who is the organizer and director of the all-Northern "Peasakey, Inc." held Monday evenings in the upstairs hall at Witherspoon Street Presbyterian Church.

Representatives of the various organizations are: Rev. Dr. Donald Meisel of First Presbyterian Church; the Rev. Mr. Liffman and William Knight of St. Andrew's; Rev. Harold Thomas of Witherspoon Presbyterian Church; Rev. Arthur Lockhart of Trinity Episcopal Church; Kenneth Michael, principal and Alfred Seitz, assistant principal of Princeton High School; Dr. Paul Chesbrough, The Hun School; Douglas McClure, Princeton Day School; Mother Jean Kirby, Stuart Country Day School; Rev. Salvatore Monda, St. Paul's School; R. Donald Barr, Joint Recreation Department; Rogers Cunningham, Youth Associates;

Also, Rev. J. Howard Middleton Jr., Princeton Unitarian Church; Chief Peter McCoolan, Lt. Francis Maguire and Juvenile Officer Ralph Proconecio, all of Princeton Borough; Township Juvenile Officer Walter Ezzann, Frank Clark, Walter Sory and Miles Austin of the YMCA, and Mrs. Janet Humes of the YMCA.

TEENAGE CONCERNS: A. C. Reeves Hicks (left) has been named chairman of the recently-formed Teenage Concerns Committee, which represents some 18 schools, agencies, churches and organizations of the Princeton community. Among the participants in Friday's meeting at the Stuart School were Herb McGinnis, of Princeton Seminary, director of Peasakey, Inc., and Mother Jean Kirby, headmistress of Stuart School. (Staff Photo)

REDUCED RATES AHEAD
Far Telephone Users. Following a review of its earnings by the State Board of Public Utility Commissioners, the New Jersey Bell Telephone Company has agreed to reduce its rates on long distance and intrastate calls.

The new rates, which will go into effect March 1, are expected to save customers some $1 million a year.

Highlights of the reductions are: (1) lowering the maximum rate for "After 8" and Sunday intrastate calls from 25 to 23 cents. The charges for all long distance intrastate calls of over 20 miles during these same periods will also be reduced; (2) expanding from three to four minutes the initial time period for all intrastate station-to-station calls in the 21 to 25-mile range.

Also, (3) reducing charges for almost 500,000 yearly person-to-person intrastate calls of certain distances, and (4) reducing by half the monthly rate for volume control used by people with impaired hearing.

The bulk of the savings—$3.5 million—will come from reduction in charges for the "After 8" and Sunday long distance calls within the state. The new rates will save customers more than 40% on some calls. They do not apply to credit card, collect calls or those charged to a third party. Approximately 17,160,000 "After 8" and Sunday intrastate calls are made each year.

INCUMBENT DEFEATED
In Hopewell Valley, James C. Miller was elected to a seat on the Hopewell Valley Regional School Board Tuesday, polling 135 votes to 64 for incumbent John Meyers in Pennington Borough.

In Hopewell Township, Rudolph Herzog and John S. Cartwright were re-elected with respective totals of 190 and 287. The defeated candidates were Richard Levitt, 152; Peter Manthie Jr., 156; and Alexander Jacobs Jr., 81. The budgets and two public videodiscs were approved by wide margins.

SECOND GRADE STARS

In Television Program. The John Witherspoon School has been the production site for an upcoming television broadcast entitled "And What Did My Little Boy Learn Today." Directed by William Hayward under the sponsorship of the New Jersey Education Association, the film will be televised over WOR-TV, Channel 9, Friday at 9 a.m.

Mrs. Marjorie Stewart's second grade class is featured in the program as it proceeds through a normal day of school work. Mrs. Priscilla Colvin, Miss Faye Osterander and Miss Marielina LaRusso appear as they teach the second graders specialized subjects.

Also taking part in the Donald Meisel family. The sequence narrates a child's return from school and a flashback over his day of classwork to prove that even an uneventful day is a learning experience for a child.

FOOD CRISIS IS TOPIC
Of Meeting Wednesday. The American Association of University Women will hold a public meeting next Wednesday at 8 in the Riverside School in Princeton. The subject of the assembly will be "World Population and Food Crisis."

Brown hair may be fine for black and white pictures—but it is good enough for color.

With the growing use of color in films, and the spiraling sales of color television sets, the world of entertainment is learning what hairdressers have long known: special hair coloring effects can turn a so-so head into a striking one.

You don't have to be a budding secret to take advantage of our color know-how: after all, we're living in a technical world. The frosting that makes Julie Andrews' medium brown hair so lovely in "Tom Cuzart" is an effect you can achieve with ease and speed.

For the know-how in hair coloring, visit our salon. Frowning is speedier and more successful than ever with our coloring machine!

RETIREES AFTER 23 YEARS
Tadlock Out of Air Force
Technical Sergeant John Tadlock Jr., a Princeton resident for many years, has retired from the U. S. Air Force after having served continuously since he entered service during World War II. Sgt. Tadlock has most recently been at Forbes Air Force Base in Kansas. His position there was that of recreation supervisor.

During World War II, Sgt. Tadlock served in the Pacific Theatre of Operations. He was also in Korea during the war. Among his decorations and awards are the Air Force Commendation Medal, the Air Force Good Conduct Medal and the National Defense Medal.

The sergeant is a graduate of Princeton High School. His mother is Mrs. Mary D. Tadlock of 51 Clay Street.

Scheduled for screening are "Eruption of Kilauea," record of the eruption of an Hawaiian volcano in 1883, and "Quebec Winter Fun," portraying skis in the Laurentians. Pete Seeger, folk singer and balladist, will narrate "To Hear You Banjo Player," a history of American folk music development.

"APOCALYPSE" COMING
To Basement Dance
Five players known as the "Apocalypse" will bring a night club-type act to The Basement this Friday, in a change-of-pace for Princeton teens.

The Basement itself, located in St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, will be transformed into a cabaret with small tables surrounding the dance floor.

There will be a full MCD program, according to Bill Knight, manager of The Basement, with music more on the order of British sound than the Detroit sound and interspersed with banter. Apocapocalypse includes three Princeton Seminars, a Princeton University undergraduate and a student from Princeton High School.

The Basement will be open from 8 to 11:30 p.m. Admission is 50c.

SLIDE PROGRAM SET

By Hopewell Garden Club, William B. Griffin will present a color slide program at the Hopewell Valley Garden Club meeting Wednesday at 8 in the Hopewell Presbyterian Church. Non-members will pay a small guest fee.

The title of Mr. Griffin's program is "Wings Across the Screen." A naturalist and photographer, he is active in both the Audubon Society and in camera club work.

Mrs. Richard Willaver of Princeton is chairman of hospitality for the meeting. Assisting her are Mrs. Joseph McAlinden, Mrs. Richard Meier, Mrs. Edward Regan and Mrs. Anthony Zep.

PAPER DRIVE ANNOUNCED

By YMCA Rangers, Borough and Township residents are requested to put old newspapers on the curb or on front porches for a paper drive Saturday. The Princeton "C" Club will collect the papers between 11 and 4.

The Rangers hope to be able to make a western trip this summer, including a stopover in Rocky Mountain National Park. Prior to the paper drive they planned a successful Friday tea dinner and program. Charles Yeagor, seminar student and club leader, will supervise the drive with the assistance of the boys' fathers. If it rains, the drive will be postponed to March 11.

Raise for the Mayor

Township mayors will receive $3,000 a year instead of $2,000. The raise is an ordinance introduced Monday night by Committee member William B. Griffin.

Mr. Wilson was mayor himself. The 1967-68 year period, and he said, with feeling, on Monday night, "It's a 24-hour job." Committee member in the Township received $1,000 a year. Commenting on his ordinance, Mr. Wilson said it still left the mayor as "the lowest-paid employee of the Township — except for an legislator."

Public hearing on the ordinance will be held March 6. The vote to pass it on first reading was unanimous — but Mayor Carl C. Schaefer abstained.

By Hadassah will hold its last district meet Wednesday at 6:30. The hostesses will be Mrs. Irving Rabinowitz, 5 Glenview.

The books under discussion will be Norman Fruchter's "Cost upon a Sea" and Mordecai Richler's "The Apprenticeship of Duddy Kravitz." Two short stories by S. Y. Agnon, "Tehilah" and "Forever More," will also be read. Mrs. Melvin Schulman, Mrs. Uri Navon and Mrs. Samuel Hints will lead the discussion.

DINNER MEETING SET

By Soroptimist Club. The Princeton Inn will be the scene of the Soroptimist Club's business dinner meeting Tuesday. The business session will begin at 6:30.

Guest speaker, Martin Hill will talk on "The Non-Political Work of the United Nations." Mr. Hill is an under-secretary in the Secretariat of the United Nations.

ALUMNAE TO CONFER

On Bennington College. Three Bennington College students will be guests of honor at the Bennington Association of Central New Jersey at its "Bennington Evening at 8." The meeting, which will take place in the home of Mrs. John K. Lee, 201 Hun Road, is planned for Princeton girls interested in attending Bennington.

Mrs. Meredith Levitt, Alumnae Director of the College, will attend. Serving on the organizational committee with Mrs. Lee are Mrs. Robert Galt, Mrs. 180 Jefferson Road; Mrs. Peter Herener, 10 Ober Road; Mrs. William D. Horrocks, Jr., Faculty Road; and Mrs. Richard Colman, 2 Campbell Circle.

Obituaries

J. Robert Oppenheimer, 62, the nuclear physicist who directed the World War II atomic bomb project at Los Alamos, died on February 18 at his home, 96 Olden Lane, after a lengthy illness. He retired last year after serving as director of the Institute for Advanced Study for nearly two decades.

An appreciation of Dr. Oppenheimer's career appears on TOWN TOPICS cover. Born on April 22, 1904 in New York City, Dr. Oppenheimer attended the Ethical Culture School in New York before entering Harvard College in 1922. After graduating summa cum laude in 1925, he studied at Cambridge University and later at Georg-August-Universität, Göttingen, where he received his doctorate in 1927. He was a National Research Fellow at Harvard and Caltech in 1927-28 and, during the following year, was a Fellow at the University of Leyden and the Technische Hochschule, Zurich.

From 1929 to 1947, Dr. Oppenheimer was a member of the faculty at Caltech in Pasadena and the University of California at Berkeley, rising to the rank of professor. He became involved in the atomic bomb project in 1941 and assumed the directorship at Los Alamos the following year. Dr. Oppenheimer retired to civilian life at the end of World War II. He headed the Institute for Advanced Study from 1947 until his retirement last year. He chaired the Atomic Energy Commission's General Advisory Committee from 1947 until 1952.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Katherine P. Oppenheimer, one son, Peter, 23, a professional photographer living in Hopewell, a daughter, Katherine, 22, a graduate student at Columbia University who received her degree from Oberlin College last year, and a brother, Frank P. Oppenheimer, a Colorado physicist. A memorial service will be held at 3 p.m. this Saturday in Alexander Hall on the Princeton University campus.

Louis J. Gentilin, 35, of Bland Road, Pennington, died on February 20 in Mercer Hospital. He was the husband of Mrs. Gina J. Gentilin. Born in Princeton, Mr. Gentilin moved to Pennington 10 years ago. He was a member and die maker for the Roller Bearing Company of America and was a member of Local 502, United Steelworkers of America.

Also surviving are two sons, Dennis I. and David L.; at home, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Gentilin of Trenton, and his brothers, Charles J. of Pennington and Arthur J. of Grover Mills. The service will be held at 3:30 this Friday in the Blackwell Memorial Home, Pennington. Requiem high mass will be in the parish cemetery.

Mrs. Gertrude K. Sims of 11 West Delaware Avenue, Pennington, died on February 20 in Helene Fuld Hospital, Trenton. She was the wife of Velt B. Sims.

A formal real estate broker, Mrs. Sims formerly lived in Trenton and Lower Merfield Township.

Also surviving are two daughters, Mrs. Ellen Miesel of Philadelphia, and Margaret Finston of Lower Merfield. Five grandchildren and a sister, Mrs. Samuel Bunting of Mountslaine.

Requiem high mass was celebrated in St. James Church, with interment in St. Mary's Cemetery.

Mrs. Hilda L. Mack, 89, of Carter Road, died February 9 in Brooklyn, she had lived here for the past 80 years.

Widow of John J. Mack, she is survived by a sister, Mrs. Selma Davidson of Princeton. The service was held at the Kimble Funeral Home, the Rev. Arthur J. Lockhart of Trinity Episcopal Church officiating.

TURNABOUT: Carl Ramsey (right) likes the idea of trading jobs with his wife for a week (less hours, more TV), but Jerry Maurie hedges somewhat when he says: "yes, but no watching the kids" (Staff Photo)

Question of the Week

Question: Would you like to trade jobs with your husband (wife) for a week?

Where asked: Princeton Shopping Center.

Carl A. Ramsey, Kendall Park, barber, Center Barber Shop, Shopping Center: Yes, it would be a nice change — easier job and less hours. I could say home and drink coffee all day and watch TV.

Jerry Maurie, Trenton, barber, Center Barber Shop, Shopping Center: Yes, all except having to watch the kids.

Mrs. Larry Settle, Rocky Hill housewife: Heavens, no! The company would go bankrupt! He works with computers.

Mrs. Robert Brownstein, 407 Prospect Avenue housewife: No, I couldn't cope with it. But you might add he couldn't cope with mine either — and he'd be the first to admit it.

Irving L. Newlin, 234 Birch Avenue, postal carrier: No indeed! My wife is a housewife. I just couldn't handle that.

Mrs. William C. Wilkinson, 55 Little Brook Road N. housewife: No, I don't think so, because I'm sure he works much harder than I do. He's an engineer. I'm a domestic engineer.

Mrs. Anthony Lucarelli, Province Line Road housewife: Actually, we do trade jobs and we love it. We both work in a restaurant. He's the host and when I go down I serve as hostess. We own the Le Bistro restaurant in Washington, D. C. just five blocks from the White House.

Leon Neely, 248 Fisher Place, student, political science: My wife teaches school and I'm a student so, no, I wouldn't want to trade with her, although I think it's admirable to teach school.

Mrs. Raymond Slavinsky, St. Joseph College, Lake Road, housewife: No sir! He does maintenance work and he's on call all the time. He's a stationary engineer for the college.

Mrs. W. C. Mitter, Belle Mead, real estate salesman: No, I don't think I would. He's been trained to do the job he does and I'm not. I don't think I could cope with his problems. He's an industrial engineer.

Mrs. Ralph Quere, 100 Stockton Street, housewife: No thank you! He's a doctoral student in Ulenology.

Mrs. John Maxwell, 199 Snowden Lane, housewife: Nooooo! I work with little children and I enjoy that very much. I wouldn't want to give it up.

Martin Jacobs, 179 Linden Lane, graduate student, chemistry: No, I don't think I would. I don't think I could do her job and I don't think she could do mine.

Mrs. Doris Geren, Province Line Road, art teacher: No I wouldn't. He's in advertising.

Mrs. Betty Clausen Kendall Park, ETS employee: No definitely not! His work is too heavy and he's outside quite a bit. (It was snowing when Mrs. Clausen gave her answer.)

Mrs. Mary Regard, 48 Erdman Avenue registered nurse: No, I would not. He's a mechanic and I'm a nurse. I'd rather be a nurse. I think a person should like what he's doing.

Mrs. Constance Ware, 148 John Street, security agent: No, my job's pretty interesting. I'd just as soon do mine.

WE DO!

Sometimes knowing what the other fellow has to contend with helps you understand what you have to do. Consider the big trucks that go through Princeton — on Washington Road coming in from Route 1 or on fast traffic Route 206.

A car turns suddenly in front of a 55-foot long trailer-truck that's going 50 miles an hour on 206 — the trucker needs 350 feet to bring his truck to a stop. He's raced 50 feet ahead while reacting to the danger. He handles three sets of brakes: one for the two front wheels of the tractor, another for its rear wheels and the third for the two wheels on the trailer.

When you jam on your brakes, the rear end can fishtail—sometimes turn you right around. When the big trucks brake fast, the trailer at the rear will whip around like a snake—often jack-knifing the trailer onto the cab.

If truckers have time, they try to control the fishtail by flipping the "trolley brake" on the steering wheel shaft. This locks the trailer brakes. They also have a brake control lever that adjusts the air pressure according to road conditions. With these safeguards, there's still the hazard of the car in front . . .

When you're braking for a turn, use your turn signals and give plenty of advance warning. The price of a sudden turn is too high. Professional drivers have developed braking into a fine art. They use the engine as a brake, pressing the pedal intermittently, not steadily. This also flashes your tail lights as an added warning.

Take care. We care!

Safety Suggestions That May Save You From Loss or Accident

FIRE

FIRE WON'T ALWAYS WAKE YOU

Burns are the No. 2 home accident killer. Guard your family with common sense:

1. Don't smoke in bed, or around any inflammable material. Never smoke when you're tired and likely to doze. Fire won't always wake you.

*****

2. The fire in your fireplace — don't start it with the charcoal lighter you used last summer out in the yard. Never use gasoline, kerosene or any other flammable liquid to get the fireplace going.

*****

3. Cooking — turn pot handles away from the front of the range. Use heavy pot holders. Keep a large lid handy to smother flaming fats. Never use water, it splatters hot grease.

*****

4. Around the furnace — you're taking grim chances when you store newspapers, wood or other fast-burning items near your furnace. Clean out the basement (and the attic) often.

*****

5. Buy at least one UL-approved fire extinguisher for your house. And teach members how to use it.

BICYCLES

FOR HIS OWN SAFETY

Mothers, when your young child hurts himself, do you pick him up, give him a squeeze and then offer him a toy or a cookie to make him feel better?

An American Academy of Pediatrics booklet,

"Responsibility Means Safety for Your Child," says that this practice could be harmful, for it makes the child think that the accident was not his fault.

When accidents occur, states the booklet, parents should be sympathetic but should also be firm in explaining how the child's own actions caused the mishap. Never blame the object, for example by saying "Did that stove burn my darling's hand?" The child will believe that the object, and not he was responsible for the accident.

Even as young as 1 and 2 — the age your child is most susceptible to accidents — he can understand why accidents happen and can assume some responsibility for his own safety.

HIGHWAYS

THE OTHER DRIVER

"I was cruising along," the man said, "when suddenly there's a car coming at me in my lane. I blew my horn but the guy kept on coming. I had to swerve and run off the road or he would have hit me head on!"

IS IT THE OTHER DRIVER?

That's often the alibi for a last-second panic, swerve to avoid a head-on collision — with serious results. Drivers have crashed into telephone poles, trees, parked cars, or run into ditches in such evasive action.

There IS something you can do when you're threatened this way — and come out alive:

If you see a car or truck coming at you, such as in a passing situation when the distance is too short for safety, slow down immediately, flash your lights, blow your horn and pull to the right as far as possible. Never swerve to the left. The other driver might cut back to his lane when he realizes the predicament — and if you're there, you get hit.

Test Your See Power! You're in the black car going about 50 mph on Route 206 not far from the airport. A truck and a car full of young people just ahead of it are going slower. It's a two-vehicle pass.

The scene above has "ACCIDENT" written all over it.

What if those teenagers suddenly decide to turn left into the drive-in. With that roaring truck behind, they may not hear your horn as you pull out. You're making sense if you picked them as the road hazard — and held up on your pass.

A & P—The Store That Cares. A Matter of Opinion.
To the Editor of Town Topics:
All of us would like to tell the Princeton community about the help given us during the big snowstorm on February 7, 1967.
When we left the A & P at the shopping center we found that our car was frozen. It took several hours before the garage could tell us that there was nothing to do but abandon the car. There was no way to get home.

Fortunately the manager of the store, Mr. Roy Van Zandt and the produce manager, Mr. Leo Andreoli, were able to free their car and drove us (with groceries) to within walking distance of our house. Then they carried the groceries through the snow.

We feel very fortunate to have men like this in our town and we wish to publicly express our warmest thanks.

To the Editor of Town Topics:
With respect to Mr. Stephen C. Bandy's should not be allowed approach to my out-going column concerning Mrs. Kennedy. (Town Topics, February 16), may I suggest that we were both engaging in "value judgments." His reference to my alleged "arrogance" is, of course, an opinion, as were my remarks about Do I know Mrs. Kennedy? No. I have never talked with her?

No. Does Mr. Bandy know me? No. Has he ever talked with me? No.

Does he know the difference between an opinion and a diagnosis? Perhaps not. GREGORY W. ESTY, M.D.

How Effective Are We?
To the Editor of Town Topics:
I have been following in TOWN TOPICS the progress of the new efforts that have been made to deal specifically with Princeton's young people. Apparently, there will be another group, housed in another building, with its own appeal for funds and volunteers.

However when the services and organizations already available are carefully inventoried, a serious question arises: Why are the existing groups failing to meet community needs in this area?

Princeton is served by at least twenty - five denominations and churches, roughly one for every seventeenth of our Princeton High School students. There are eleven PTA Associations — each with its own president. In addition, we have the Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Police Youth Program, Youth Associates, YMCA, YWCA, Family Service Agency, Child Guidance Center, Princeton Study Center, Youth Employment Service, Council of Community Services, Princeton Association for Human Rights, and the United Fund.

While the Council of Community Services and the United Fund do not render direct services, they do guide and the United Fund funds many of the other agencies listed. With the exception of FAIR and Family Service Agency, all others are associated specifically with you in some way.

We have a Recreation Board two Juvenile Officers, and a Juvenile Board (these last two are designed to help the child who has been, or is in trouble). The Regional Schools have a Special Services Team consisting of, among others, four psychologists, two psychiatric social workers and one consulting psychiatrist, in addition.

NOTICE

TOWN TOPICS will make every effort, based on space limitations, to publish up to 300 words of any letter on a subject directly affecting the Princeton area. Because of the volume of news which must be covered at the community level, letters on topics of a national or international nature cannot be considered.

Letters to Mailbox should be typewritten if possible, double-spaced, and must be signed for publication. Those received later than Monday afternoon may be held for use the following week.

Letters to guidance personnel in Junior and senior high schools.

I am sure there are other organizations who have involved young people as part of their greater purpose. The Junior Red Cross and the Princeton Hospital Candy Strippers are just two that come to mind.

With no special knowledge, only logic prompts me to ask the community and its leaders to look carefully at what we have to see if our present resources are being used effectively and cooperatively.

purchase swamp land and turn it over to the Federal government for a wildlife refuge.

This refuge will be an outdoor laboratory and nature classroom for high school and college students. It is also a resting place for migratory birds. In addition, it is a natural runoff regulator that prevents excessive fluctuations in the level of the Passaic River.

The vision of Morris County conservationists has preserved for their children and their children's children something unique and irreplaceable. And if future generations value nature more than we have, which is very likely to be the case, the people who saved the Great Swamp in the 1860's will be long remembered with gratitude.

It is sad that we do not have people of equal vision in Mercer County. We have a somewhat similar resource at the headwaters of the Millstone River. Knowing that our own swamp was already under siege and would soon be destroyed, I took my children through by canoe last fall. I wanted them to have an opportunity to see real wilderness, probably just as it was in former times.

For several miles, we were completely cut off from any trace of man and his works except for the Pennsylvania Railroad bridge at one point and the sound of an occasional airplane. We saw herons, a hawk, mallards, too, kingfishers and many other birds. The children lost count of turtles.

THREE GENERATIONS OF FASHION: Mrs. Alpheus T. Mason, (seated) will be a model in the Princeton Day School fashion show, and so will her daughter, Mrs. Joseph P. Rochester III (standing) and Mrs. Rochester's daughters, Lisa, (left) and Cary (right). Clothes for the show, worn by these four models, are from Bellows. The date is Friday, March 3.

and we spotted several muskrats and a beaver. The muskrats were sleeping somewhere, but we could see the signs of their nocturnal activities along the banks.

Mallows were blooming in culverant profusion . . . miles of them, both lavender and white. They appear to be cousins of the tropical hibiscus, and equally beautiful.

I'm glad my children were able to see this bit of swamp wilderness before it was completely despoiled. But already the draglines and the bulldozers and the clamshells are at work at different points along the waterway. And near U.S. 1, factories have been built and are pouring their wastes into the river. In another few years we shall have something like the reeking Gowanus Canal in Brooklyn or the notorious Calumet River in Illinois. And the factory wastes, incidentally, will flow down into Carnegie Lake.

Lack of vision is a sad affliction, and frightfully expensive for our descendants. We could and should have done better by them.

SCIENTIST HONORED

By RCA Laboratories. Dr. Simon Larrach, 130 Sylvan Road, has been named Fellow of the Technical Staff by RCA for his outstanding scientific contributions to the field of luminescence. The award is given in recognition of sustained technical output in the past and anticipated research in the future.

Associated with RCA Laboratories since 1946 Dr. Larrach has received many honors for his work in chemistry and solid state physics, including four RCA Laboratories achievement awards. In 1964, he was one of the co-recipients of the David Sarnoff Outstanding Team Award in Science.

Dr. Larrach, a City College of New York graduate, obtained his master's degree and doctorate from Princeton University. He has had 15 patents issued in his name and has written more than 25 technical articles.

SPORTS In Princeton

Cornell Game on TV
Because of the extreme interest in the Cornell-Princeton basketball game Saturday, plans to televise it on delayed tape have been changed and it will be seen live on Channel 11,
New York, starting at 8 p.m.

ODDS FAVOR TIGERS
But Improvement Is Needed.
To win the Ivy basketball title Princeton must merely beat Cornell once on its own court—presuming, of course, that the Tigers can also defeat
Columbia and Penn in Dillon Gym.

The theans, on the other hand, must win three straight from Princeton: to the 65-58 upset they achieved at home last week, they must add a triumph here Saturday and then will be required to defeat the Orange and black a third time in an early March playoff on a neutral court. This, obviously, in addition to a ability to win over Penn and Columbia, both on the road.

Offsetting the fact that it has completed its home schedule is the powerful momentum

IN A LOSING CAUSE, 23 POINTS: Chris Thomlerde, Princeton's 6-9 center, made 23 points against Cornell Saturday but Tigers were upset, 62-56. He'll get another shot at Ithaca this weekend.

That is riding with Cornell.
The Red now knows it has proved superiority over the nationally-ranked Tigers, that its own mark of 19-3 is not far from Princeton's 20-2, and that it has now a ten-game winning streak.
Sharp in contrast, Princeton now has a one-game losing streak and is bogged down by the knowledge that it has not played a good game of basketball since the month of February began. In every one of the close calls against Harvard, Yale, Brown and Columbia—eliminated by the defeat at Ithaca—it was not the other team's brilliance but the Tigers' own mistakes that proved so costly. This is reverse momentum that sometimes cannot be halted.

The Upcoming Schedule.
While it is possible that any of the four other games in which Princeton and Cornell will participate could unexpectedly determine the outcome of the race, neither is likely to lose to Columbia or Penn. The Lions, who gave the Tigers fits before succumbing in New York last Friday, 57-34, will be here Friday night at 8 p.m., which led Cornell at Ithaca last week by nine points at the half but eventually lost by 11 plays how to the Red the night before the latter comes here.

Penn will conclude Princeton's schedule Wednesday night at 8 in Dillon Gym, but Cornell does not finish until the following Saturday at Ithaca. There is a playoff, it will be held Tuesday, March 7, at a site still to be announced.

The winner will then enter the first round of the NCAA Tournament, facing the Yankee Conference champion (probably Connecticut) on Saturday, March 11, in the Virginia Poly-tech gym at Blacksburg, Va.
Agreement between the Ivy League and the NCAA to revive the controversial 1-6 rule until the end of the current academic year was announced on Sunday.

early last month. The Bruins have been playing extremely good hockey since that time—during one four-day period in mid-February they followed a 10-5 lashing of Yale with a 9-1 walloping of Harvard. Wayne Small, Bob Davney and Captain Dennis Macks form a first line for the Bruins that packs as much power as any trio in the league.

For the first time in the history of the sport here Princeton has lost four times to Yale in one season. The latest defeat was a 4-3 affair at New Haven Saturday, in which the Elis scored three times in the first seven minutes, once while they had a man in the penalty box. Early in the third period they moved out to a 4-0 lead and then held the Tigers off. Princeton outshot the victors, 28-20, but had trouble finding the net, losing again to goalie Mark Dayton, a sophomore who was not on the varsity roster until a fortnight ago. Terry Peterman and Jerry Kneary scored near the end of the game for the losers.

Tied with a good Clarkson sextet at 4-4 as late as the 14 minute mark of the final period.

ced last Wednesday, the Orange and Black led, 6-4, when its costly habit of insuring penalties cost them an opportunity they needed. Defenseman Bill Ramsay went off for hooking at 12:34, and before he was back, Clarkson's good power play broke the deadlock.

Three of the victory's six goals came when the Tigers had a man in the bin, and a fourth was driven past Regan Kenney while Clarkson was a man short—a problem that has plagued the team on several occasions this year when its over-extended offense cannot find a way to break through. Goalie Gladman John Ritchie and sophomore Jon Taylor and Jerry Kneary scored for the Tigers.

IT'S ALL OVER

PIS Five Ends 6-16 Season
For the Little Tigers of Princeton High, the basketball season this year was one of aching wounds rather than clawing the opposition. Following defeats by Peddie last week and by Hamilton in its finale on Friday, Coach Tom Hornok's operatives ended with a 6-18 record.

Toward the end, the Little Tigers began to find their shooting eye, something which eluded them, for the most part, in the first half of the season. For example, four men were in double figures in the Blue and White's 83 to 88 loss to Hamilton and in the Peddie contest. Rich Voltz and Thom Yoder came up with career scoring highs.

But the defense. The team never found the key to that. The secret, rung up by the opposition in the final three games read 82, 84 and 83 points.

Any post-mortems, however, on why the team failed to elicit in spite of its obvious potential will have to be one's own. Preferring to let the outcome speak for itself, Hornok has steadfastly refused to discuss the performance of his team.

In the relatively small confines of the Hamilton gym on Friday, the visiting Little Tigers matched the favored Hornets (12-9) basket for basket in the first half. Indeed at one point, a three-point play by Jeff Frangos and a basket by Voltz gave PHS a 16-11 lead. Frangos, a 180-pound, 6-1 junior, ended with 12, his career high, and played probably his best game of the campaign.

At the half it was all even, 36-36. Then PHS went into one of its patented tailspins. Ten offensive rebounds, three steals and three outside bombs by Hamilton's Gary Van Camp resulted in a 28-6 bulge for the home team in the third period. Final score: 83-66.

In addition to Frangos, PHS placed three others in double figures. Tom Wood, 6-5 center and leading scorer, had 15 points. Voltz had 14 and Yoder 11. Yoder fouled out with 11 minutes to play.

Peddie Wins. At Hightstown last week, PHS was cut down, 84 to 73.

For the losers, two high shots were the offensive play

Cox, and Doug Van Doren. Members of the varsity squad who will return—hopefully to better things—are Bob Upchurch, Alan Morine, Marty Illies, Yoder and Frangos.

HOSPITAL ADVANCES

In Industrial League, Princeton Hospital moved into a tie for first place in the NCA Research and Industrial Basketball League by defeating league-leading Gallup Pool last week, 88-49.

Roger Madden led the Hospital quintet with 20 points. Kerry Klink's 16 was high for the losers. Each team now has a 7-2 record.

ETS (6-9) remained one game behind when it topped ICA, 46-37. Clarence Gilbert was the big gun for ETS with 23 points, offsetting Tom Connelly's effort for the losers.

LECTURE-RECITAL SET To Survey Piano Music A lecture-recital will be presented Tuesday at 8 in the Westminster Choir College. The recital will be given by Mrs. McKinney, professor of piano, and the lecture will be presented at Westminster, will survey the piano literature and the piano performance styles of the last 300 years.

McKinney is a graduate of Oberlin College and has received a postgraduate degree from the Juillard School of Music. A member of the Princeton University Choral Workshop faculty, she will perform for the Princeton Music Club in April.

FREE CONCERT SET
By Westminster Choir,
The Chapel Choir of Westminster will present a recital special concert at 4 Sunday in Princeton Methodist Church.
The public is invited to attend
free of charge.

The Chapel Choir, under the direction of Robert Simpson will go on its annual spring tour from March 12 to March 18. They will sing in churches and high schools in Pennsylvania, Ohio, Michigan and Indiana.

ORGANIST TO PLAY
At Seminary. Organist Gale
Enger will present a recital
Tuesday at 7:45 p.m. in Miller
Chapel at Princeton Theological Seminary. Mr. Enger is a member of the organ faculty at Westminster Choir College.
Works by Johann Sebastian Bach and Franz Liszt will be featured in the performance.
Two Bach compositions, "Kyrie, God the Holy Ghost" and
"Two Shorter," preceded by Liszt's "Fantasy and Fugue on B.A.C.H.," in which Liszt spells out "Bach's" name in a musical acronym.

Several other composers will be represented in the program.
"Prelude on the Lord's Prayer," written in the Jewish idom by Herman Behrlich, contrasts with the color of Robert Elmore's
"Rhapsodic Suite." Also offered are works by Olivier Messie-

PDS WINS FIFTH
72-68 Over Montclair. The Princeton Day School basketball team won its fifth game in 11 starts Tuesday afternoon when it defeated visiting Montclair Academy, 72-68.
With Frank Andrews leading the way — 24 points and 13 rebounds — help for PDS in both departments — the Blue and White went from a 6-6 deficit to a 29-23 halftime lead.
Co-captains Bill Rigot and Craig Faye contributed 19 and 14 points respectively.

Rick Ross, PDS's tallest player at 6-1, added nine points and pulled down 12 rebounds, while junior Richard Baines, the team's seventh man, led a solid job of filling in for the fouling-out Jon Vareen. "Raines had five points and five rebounds to help take up the slack," said
PDS coach Dan Barren.

Next, PDS will entertain the Fieddie Jaycee squad at 1:15 on Friday night on Thursday [On Friday it will travel northward for a contest with Morristown Prep. Wednesday it will host the Pingry Jaycees.

Rutgers Prep Wm. Last Friday, a strong Rutgers Prep outfitting 82-21 defeated PDS in 9-50 converting some crucial 1-on-1 situations in the close and snatching the late as one minute to go. PDS was behind a 30-21 margin.

Page had his best game of the season, hitting on 10 of 20 attempts from the floor and five free throws for 22 points.
Most of his shots were from the outside. The backcourt can also contribute six andrew added 13 points and Eight eight Ross had 14 rebounds against the taller visitors.

An eight-point, one-offensive-rebound third quarter led to a 68-50 defeat on Tuesday by Pennington. At the half PDS trailed by 20, 30-20.
Commented Barren: "We played very well. We had good defense, good teamwork, but Pennington was too strong for us under the basket. They out-rebounded us 35-36." Page Ri-got and Andrews combined for 14 of the losses' points.

she was born in Cranbury and had lived in this area all her life. Mrs. Hand was a member of the Dutch Neck Presbyterian Church.

Her survivors are three daughters, Mrs. Gladys Danser and Mrs. Doris Holman of Dutch Neck and Mrs. Ester L.
Collins of Jamesburg; a brother William Applegate of Highstown; a sister, Mrs.
Lyla Hendrickson of Freehold; seven grandchildren and 14 great-grandchildren.

The service was held at the Mather Funeral Home, Dr.
James Weaver, pastor of the Dutch Neck Presbyterian Church officiating. Burial was in Cedar Hill Cemetery, Highstown.

Contributions in her memory may be made to the Kidney Foundation, 342 Madison Avenue, New York, or to the Princeton First Aid and Rescue Squad.

Christopher H. Nestor, 41,
Of Old Meadow Road, Toms
River, formerly of Lawrence-township, died suddenly on February 16 in Memorial Hospital.

A self-employed landscape architect, Mr. Nestor was in Trenton and moved to Toms River five years ago. He was a member of the American War II and an Air Force veteran of the Korean conflict.
He belonged to the C. Caycote County Board of Agriculture, the National Hunt Club, the Red Neckers Hunting Club and was a former member of America's Legion Post 458, Trenton.

A Report from 1st Trenton National Bank

MORTGAGE MONEY

There has been much talk about "tight" money, about a shortage of money for mortgage loans. We believe these reports to be exaggerated.

During 1966, we continued to serve our customers and, to the best of our ability, to meet the needs of our community. During the year, we made mortgage loans of $11,000,000, 34% more than in 1965; all on properties in the Mercer County area.

In 1967 we are continuing our active mortgage lending policy. We have ample funds available and our terms and rates are fully competitive. If you are thinking of building or buying a house—call us at 989-7700, or visit any of our eleven conveniently-located offices. (See the phone book for the office nearest you.)

Rides on air & oil

Citroën gives you a smoother, safer, more comfortable ride than any car, at any price. With Citroën's amazing Air-Oil suspension, you actually ride on air. Other reasons why you'll like Citroën: up to 115 m.p.h. performance... and up to 28 m.p.g. economy; constant level ride with any load; sure-footed traction of front-wheel drive; faster, safer stops with "regenerative" braking. See and test drive Citroën, and you'll see why it's a great car to drive—and own!

A WOMAN'S HOUSE

With each detail of comfort and every appointment arranged for the greatest family enjoyment and privacy and the modern amenities colonial will be the delight of every woman who sees it. A welcoming entrance hall opens to formal living and dining rooms across the front of the house and through a wide doorway to a handsome informal room across the rear. This marvelous 14' room with its exposed ceiling beams, pegged oak floor, brick fireplace and wall of sliding thermopane is also accessible from a children's entry and a huge 12' x 20' screened porch. The fully equipped electric kitchen is a dream with its big pantry closet and real breakfast room separating it from the family room. Also on the ground floor, in a wing apart, are a master bedroom, guest room or study and luxurious bath. Upstairs, three more beautiful double bedrooms, a large compartmented bath and a variety of closet space. The cellar is enormous and dry and opens to a big wet garage with automatic doors. The house is centrally air-conditioned and the two new heating systems is the finest electric/radiant air filters. There are just a few of the mechanical points that will please your husband, he's sure to be interested in the six and eight foot wide load-bearing that adds to the house too. The entire house is in perfect condition and its convenient Princeton Township location is one of the best. Built by the owner for himself, this house has never before been available for purchase. Offered for the first time at $70,000.

Profile of a Woman Insurance Agent

The prospective woman agent having a better-than-average chance to succeed in life insurance appears,

in profile, like this:

She is between the ages of 30 and 42, mature enough to understand and be able to talk to men and women about the financial problems of life.

She has at least 5 years' experience in the business or professional world, preferably in the area she is to serve, and is familiar with the vocabulary of people who earn a living.

She understands the silent prejudice against women who seek responsible positions above the minor supervisory level.

She must be able to empathize — not sympathize — with women in circumstances similar to her own. This business experience helps her to treat the "no's" in life insurance sales interviews objectively rather than subjectively.

She is sexually unsatisfied. She may be divorced, widowed, separated, or be a dedicated single woman careerist.

She must be a woman who is disturbed, not emotionally, but one who is dissatisfied because she has reached a position ceiling or a salary ceiling, and who likes money, needs recognition, and seeks self-expression.

HOUSE HUNTING?

GROWING FAMILY? . . . in a very pleasant neighboring community, here is a large house (red shingles with white shutters and trim) that has 3 bedrooms, 2 baths on the ground floor, and a fully insulated second floor, with plumbing and heating ducts installed, which can easily be finished into 2 more bedrooms and bath when needed. At present, the house now has entry hall, carpeted living room and dining area, large modern kitchen with breakfast space, and family room with fireplace. Very liberal terms available to qualified buyer.

(Sole agent) $31,000

NINE BEDROOMS . . . just outside Princeton, an old Victorian house with lofty shade trees and more than an acre of land, has been transformed into a wonderful place to live. The old part of the house has central hall, living room and dining room, breakfast room and kitchen. Second floor: 3 bedrooms and bath. Third floor: 2 bedrooms and bath. The new part, built in 1957, has central air-conditioning, and provides a huge paneled family room, master bedroom with dressing room and bath, a second bedroom and bath. Upstairs: sitting room, 2 more bedrooms, 1 bath and laundry room. (Sole agent) $55,000

WOODED . . . against an almost rural background of lofty trees, this long, low white house enjoys as lovely a setting as any in the Township. 4 bedrooms, 2 baths. All rooms on one floor. Big paneled recreation room with fireplace, and powder room, in basement. Living room with fireplace, 14' x 16' dining room, modern kitchen with dishwasher and disposal, sunroom and a beautiful flagstone patio. Master bedroom has two over-sized, wall-to-ceiling built-in drawers and shelves, and the other closets are many and commodious. This is a custom-built home, with plaster walls, and those other enviable details which Harold Pearson always put into his houses. (Sole agent) $69,500

TOWN HOUSE . . . right on Stockton Street, in the Borough, it has a wide entrance hall, living room with fireplace, dining room with fireplace, library, maid's room and bath, powder room . . . and a very up-to-date kitchen. Upstairs: sitting room with fireplace (this could also be a bedroom), 3 bedrooms, 2 baths. Third floor: 4 bedrooms, 1 bath. Outdoors: an inviting garden with flagstone terrace, and many huge old shade trees. This is a Victorian masterpiece, over a century old, which has been restored and decorated in excellent taste. (Sole agent) $79,500

RENTALS . . . furnished apartment, Borough, 2 bedrooms. $212

Rural, on 30 acres, modern 4 bedroom Colonial. Maid's room & bath. $425

Township, 5 acres, house with 6 bedrooms, 4 baths, swimming pool $450

Many more fine homes in Princeton and vicinity in every price range.

CONGENIAL NEIGHBORS

On every side, you'll find compatible young families with children for yours to play with. That's one of the major attractions of this inviting Lawrence Township settlement, but proximity to excellent schools and shopping is a definite selling point. Built less than three years ago, this handsome Colonial has center hall, large living room, separate dining room, paneled family room with fireplace, wonderful kitchen with ample dining space, laundry and powder room on the ground floor. 4 bedrooms and 2 full baths on second. Central air conditioning besides the obvious merits of its 1 1/3 acre lot make this a dream where town is only a memory too.
